

BP 600-A: ANNUAL GAD ACCOMPLISHMENT REPORT
FY 2010

Agency: OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR GENERAL

Program/Activity/Project (1)	Gender Issue (2)	GAD Activity (3)	Results (4)	Cost (5)	Remarks (6)
A. Capacity-building	There is a need to capacitate the GAD Focal Point so they can efficiently and effectively discharge their duties and responsibilities.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Training for GAD Focal Point members and other key personnel of OSG. The 3-day training held on June 11, 18 and July 02, 2010 was on: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Rights-based and approaches to Gender and Development for the Office of the Solicitor General; b. Laws and human rights for promoting gender equality 	The three-day seminar was able to bring out some of the gender issues in the Office and was able to introduce the concept of GAD to the employees, especially to the lawyers and how they can apply the GAD concepts in their work.	PhP 88,750.00
		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Training Program for Trainors on Gender Responsiveness for the National Prosecution Service held on 20-23 July 2010. 	Various laws pertaining to women (Anti Sexual Harassment Law, Human Trafficking, Rape, Violence Against Women) and skills required for	All related expenses were taken cared of by the ADB	This activity was sponsored by the Asian Development Bank and was originally for the DOJ-NPS only. But through the networking efforts of OSG GAD Focal Point, five OSG

			trainors were discussed to the participants to prepare them to become GAD trainors in their respective offices.		lawyers were able to participate in this activity.
B. Networking and linkages		2. Formed linkage/network with the UP Center for Women's Studies Foundation, Inc. for the continuous formulation of training activities for the GAD Focal Point and all OSG employees.	Gained the commitment of the UP Center for Women's Studies Foundation, Inc to support the future training activities and needs of the OSG	N/A
		3. Participated in the Technical Assistance program of the Asian Development Bank on Gender and Development in connection with their Governance in Justice Sector Reform Program.	Opened the possibility of OSG becoming part of other technical assistance/programs of the ADB regarding GAD	N/A
C. Women's Welfare		4. Made initial planning and preparatory activities for the possible provision of cervical cancer vaccines to women-	The survey conducted showed that many employees are interested to avail of the vaccines, primarily because of the growing	N/A	Hopefully, this program would push through this 2011 since this activity is highly anticipated by the employees. This activity also has a direct

		employees, which includes; <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Conducted a survey to identify who among the employees are interested to avail the vaccines. b. Made initial talks with possible service providers to discuss the cost of vaccines, free seminar for women employees on the importance of the vaccine, etc. c. Studied potential sources of fund for the project. 	awareness of diseases that are prevalent on women such as cervical cancer.		impact.
D. Information, education and communication		5. Facilitated the acquisition of publications on Women, Gender and Development, Jurisprudence relating to GAD, etc.	Availability of these materials would enrich the reference materials of the institution on GAD and related matters, which can also be utilized by the lawyers when they do their work such as preparing pleadings on cases that somehow may be related to GAD or women concerns.	PhP 3,000.00

Prepared by:  MA. ANTONIA EDITA C. DIZON Assistant Solicitor General CHAIRPERSON OF GAD FOCAL POINT	Approved by:  JOSE ANSELMO F. CADIZ Solicitor General HEAD OF AGENCY	Date: DAY/MO/YR
--	---	------------------------